PREFACE

This is the fourth Historical Catalogue of Bangor Theological Seminary. The former editions appeared in 1890, 1901 and 1916. Prior to the first-named date it had been the custom to issue once in five years a list of graduates and of those who had been enrolled in the Seminary for at least one year, giving in each instance the last address.

It has been the purpose of the Seminary authorities to prepare a new edition of the historical catalogue at ten year intervals, but this has not proved feasible at all times. In the present instance an effort has been made to carry forward all records to 1926, and for graduates of recent years the information in hand extends to 1928.

Since there were but few changes to be recorded prior to 1875, it was deemed expedient to confine the present edition to the period subsequent to that date. A supplement has been prepared containing all new data for earlier years, (1820-1874). This will be forwarded for a remittance of 30 cents, or the supplement, together with the Historical Catalogue of 1916, will be sent for one dollar.

Prolonged and earnest endeavor has not sufficed in some instances to procure present addresses and gather the necessary information. Where this has been the case a † has been prefixed to the name. From 1916 onward all names have been included where any credits whatever have been established in the Seminary. No mention is made of students dismissed from the Seminary since the publication of the former historical catalogue.

The index includes all students from 1820 to 1874, listed in the last Historical Catalogue, as well as those from 1875 to 1928, whose names appear in the present issue.

Information as to errors and omissions will be gratefully received.
